And of these certainly not more than 50 are to be found in the streets, and allowing 10 at each of the two Circuses, 15 at the Olympic theatre and half a dozen reviewing the interior of various public houses, we can but account, for some 90 or 100. Where are the others? or who receives the "postage stamps" in lieu of them."

Beware of thieves who call at your private residence saying that they have been sent by the Gas Company to inspect the meter or tap an escape. They generally find means to fool the Señora and the servants and clear out with everything portable they can lay their hands on.

Numbers of people intend to take advantage of the cheap fares offered by the Central Argentine Railway and have a run into the bowels of the land. Why not; to prepare them for the busy sea-

As a whole the new House of Commons is decidedly older than its predecessor. The ages range from 22—Mr. W. Allen (L) and Mr. T. B. Curran (N) were both born in 1870—to 90, Mr. Villiers is again the Father of the House at 90, and the other veterans are Mr. Isaac Holden (85), Mr. Gladstone (82), and Mr. C. Wright (82). We learn upon the authority of a North American exchange, that "Queen Victoria has taken to wearing the divided skirt, and the loyal cablegrams say that she rather enjoys them or it, or whatever you call them." The Chicago Mail editor remarks that he has always preferred something of the sort and is glad to have her Majesty's endorsement, and we are sure that our masculine readers will hesitate no longer but go in bravely, one and all, for the nocturnal equivalent in male attire, namely, the improved pyjama suits which can only, and most appositely, be obtained at "The English." When they are buying these, they can also replenish their stock of every description, all of the highest quality and at most moderate prices.
